

SWITCHED ON

Pre-Programme Survey

This survey helps us find out what you already know about being safe, responsible, and kind online before starting Switched On: a Digital Citizenship Education Programme. You'll be asked a few questions about how you use the internet and what you think about different online situations. There are no right or wrong answers. After completing the Switched On programme, you'll take another survey to see what new things you've learned.
